On The Move

Rex McNulty has been appointed to the position of U.S. Coal Sales Manager at Flexco. McNulty will manage all sales and service resources in the dedicated coal production regions of Appalachia and Illinois - Indiana. McNulty will also work with Flexco territory sales managers and others parts of the U.S. and Canada that have significant coal production operations. "Rex has worked with Flexco for more than ten years, selling and supporting Flexco products in the Appalachia region," said Tom Wujek, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer for Flexco.

Tom Henson has been hired as Director of Product Management, Marketing, and Knowledge at Industrial Scientific Corporation. Henson has assumed responsibility for the overall direction of the global product offerings of both Industrial Scientific and its sister company, Design, Build, Own, and Operate, Inc. Additionally, he will direct knowledge, management, and marketing functions. Henson brings more than 20 years of experience in product management and marketing to this role. He holds a Master of Business Administration Degree from Carnegie Mellon University where he graduated with University Honors. He also holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Electrical Engineering with a computer science option from the Ohio State University.

Sandra Loy Bell, the Chief Executive Officer of Skelly and Loy has been named as one of Central Pennsylvania's 25 Women of Influence of 2010 by Central Penn Business Journal and its program sponsors. This prestigious award was given to Bell because of her significant career accomplishments, leadership, and mentoring, and community involvement. The Women of Influence Award, created in 2010, is an effort to recognize women leaders in the Central Pennsylvania area who are making significant positive impacts on their companies, industries, and communities. John Gunnnett, Skelly and Loy's President, said, "We at Skelly and Loy are very proud, but not surprised that Sandi has been given this esteemed award. She works tirelessly in support of the firm, the engineering and environmental industries, in general, and dedicates her spare time and resources to many professional, civic, and charitable organizations where she lives, works, and plays."

Dan Memmen has been promoted to National Sales Director for Engine Aftermarket at Donaldson

Company. Memmen will lead the sales, strategy, and execution for Donaldson Engine Aftermarket Distribution and private label sales activity in the U.S. and Canada.
